VITA, in its sole discretion, may extend this Contract for up to three (3) additional one (1) year periods after the expiration of the initial Term. VITA will issue a written notification to the Supplier stating VITA's intention to exercise the extension period no less than 30 calendar days prior to the expiration of any current term. In addition, performance of an order issued during the Term of this Contract may survive the expiration of the Term of this Contract, in which case all contractual terms and conditions required for the operation of such order will remain in full force and effect until all of Supplier's obligations pursuant to such order have met the final Acceptance criteria of the applicable Authorized User.

B. Service Commencement Date ("SCD")

Upon the Effective Date, Supplier shall execute a Microsoft Change in Channel Partnership ("COCP") form for each Agreement identified in Exhibit A. These executed COCP forms will then be submitted to Microsoft. VITA shall notify Supplier in writing upon receipt of confirmation from Microsoft that the Supplier may begin providing Reseller Services to VITA and all Authorized Users for each such Agreement. Supplier shall promptly begin delivery of Reseller Services for each such Agreement to VITA and all Authorized Users, upon receipt of said notice, or at such other date as may be requested by VITA (Service Commencement Date).

This procedure shall be repeated for any future Agreement which may be added by VITA to Exhibit A.

C. Termination for Convenience

VITA may terminate this Contract, in whole or in part, at any time and for any reason upon not less than 60 calendar days prior written notice to Supplier. An Authorized User may terminate an order, in whole or in part, at any time and for any reason upon not less than 60 calendar days prior written notice to Supplier. Any termination under this provision will not affect the rights and obligations attending any order outstanding at the termination date.

D. Termination for Breach

In the event of a breach by Supplier, VITA shall have the right to terminate this Contract, in whole or in part, or any order issued hereunder, in whole or in part, or an Authorized User may terminate an order, in whole or in part. Any termination under the provisions of this section will be deemed a "Termination for Breach". Supplier will be deemed in breach in the event that any one or more of the following events occurs or continues during the Term of the Contract or the term of the order, as applicable:

- i.) Supplier fails to deliver the Microsoft Products and Online Services or provide the Reseller Services required by this Contract or any order issued hereunder by the specified delivery date or in accordance with the timeliness standards set forth in Exhibit B;
- ii.) Supplier repeatedly fails to respond to requests for correction of deficiency(ies) or other services within the time limits set forth in the Contract or any order issued hereunder;
- iii.) Supplier is in breach and/or default of any of the other terms set forth within this Contract;
- iv.) Supplier fails for any period of time to maintain its status as a Microsoft Authorized North American Government Large Account Reseller (LAR);
- v.) Supplier fails to notify VITA and all Authorized Users that it is no longer a Microsoft Authorized North American Government LAR;
- vi.) Supplier is placed on any of the Lists of Parties Excluded from Federal Procurement and Nonprocurement Programs; or
- vii.) Supplier is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in violation of or to have violated 31 USC 1352.

If VITA deems the Supplier to be in breach, VITA shall provide Supplier with notice of breach and allow Supplier 15 business days to cure the breach. If Supplier fails to cure the breach as noted, VITA may immediately terminate this Contract or any order issued pursuant to this Contract, in whole or in part. If an Authorized User deems the Supplier to be in breach of an order, that Authorized User shall provide Supplier with notice of breach and allow Supplier 15 business days to cure the breach. If Supplier fails to cure the breach as noted, the Authorized User may immediately terminate its order, in whole or in part. With respect to items (iv), (v), and (vi) above, VITA reserves the right to terminate the Contract for breach immediately and without affording Supplier an opportunity to cure the failure.

Supplier agrees that if this Contract is terminated by VITA for breach, Supplier shall immediately provide to Microsoft, with a certified copy to VITA, permission to immediately rescind its status as the reseller of record for VITA and all Authorized Users. Further, if termination for breach results in any Authorized User's inability to make scheduled payments or to place orders for Microsoft Products installed by such Authorized User, Supplier shall reimburse such Authorized User for any penalties or additional costs incurred in licensing Microsoft Products installed by such Authorized User but not ordered due to the termination and in re-licensing Microsoft Products for which scheduled payments had not been made or for which Software Assurance could not be obtained or renewed.

Upon Termination for Breach, neither the Commonwealth, nor VITA, nor any Authorized User shall have any future liability except for Microsoft Products and Online Services provided by Supplier prior to the termination date. Supplier shall accept return, if applicable, of any Microsoft Product that was not accepted by the Authorized User(s), and Supplier shall refund any monies paid by any Authorized User for such Microsoft Product. All costs of de-installation and return of Microsoft Products shall be borne by Contractor.

The failure of VITA or an Authorized User to exercise its right to terminate for breach under this provision shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to terminate for breach, rescind or revoke this Contract or any order issued hereunder in the event of any subsequent breach on any provisions of such agreements.

Supplier shall submit any contractual dispute to VITA or the terminating Authorized User for resolution according to the terms of the Dispute Resolution Section of this Contract.

E. Termination for Non-Appropriation of Funds

All payment obligations from public bodies under this Contract are subject to the availability of legislative appropriations at the federal, state, or local level for this purpose. In the event of non-appropriation of funds, irrespective of the source of funds, for the items under this Contract, VITA may terminate this Contract, in whole or in part, or any order, in whole or in part, or an Authorized User may terminate an order, in whole or in part, for those goods or services for which funds have not been appropriated. Written notice will be provided to the Supplier as soon as possible after legislative action is completed.

F. Effect of Termination

Upon termination, neither the Commonwealth, nor VITA, nor any Authorized User will have any future liability except for Microsoft Products and Online Services accepted by an Authorized User or Reseller Services rendered by Supplier and accepted by the Authorized User prior to the termination date.

In the event of a Termination for Breach, the provisions of Section D, "Termination for Breach, above will apply.

G. Termination by Supplier

In no instance will termination by Supplier be considered. Failure by an Authorized User to make timely payments owed to Supplier for its performance under this Contract will constitute a breach by that Authorized User. Supplier's remedy for a breach is limited to the remedies set forth in Code § 2.2-4363 and the "Remedies" section of this Contract below.

H. Transition of Services

At the request of an Authorized User prior to or upon expiration or termination of this Contract, Supplier shall provide all assistance as the Authorized User may reasonably require to transition the Reseller Services to any other supplier with whom the Authorized User contracts for provision of same. This Transition Period obligation may extend beyond expiration or termination of the Contract for a period of twelve (12) months. Supplier agrees to provide all reasonable transition assistance without any additional fees or charges.

The transition assistance will be deemed by the parties to be governed by the terms and conditions of this Contract, except for those terms or conditions that do not reasonably apply to transition assistance.

I. Contract Kick-Off Meeting

Within 30 calendar days of the Effective Date, Supplier may be required to attend a contract orientation meeting, along with the VITA contract manager/administrator, Authorized User project manager(s) or authorized representative(s), and any other significant stakeholders who have a part in the successful performance of this Contract. The purpose of this meeting will be to review all contractual obligations for both parties, all administrative and reporting requirements, and to discuss any other relationship, responsibility, communication and performance criteria set forth in the Contract.

J. Contract Closeout

Prior to the Contract's expiration date, Supplier may be provided contract closeout documentation by VITA. If contract closeout documentation is provided, then Supplier shall complete, sign, and return to VITA Supply Chain Management any required documentation within 30 calendar days of receipt to ensure completion of closeout administration and to maintain a positive performance reputation with the Commonwealth. Any required closeout documentation not received within 30 calendar days of Supplier's receipt of the Commonwealth's request will be documented in the contract file as Supplier non-compliance. Supplier's non-compliance may affect any pending payments due to the Supplier, including final payment, until the documentation is returned to VITA.

4. SUPPLIER PERSONNEL

A. Selection and Management of Supplier Personnel

Supplier shall ensure that all Supplier Personnel performing under this Contract are competent and knowledgeable of the contractual arrangements and the applicable order between Authorized User and Supplier. Supplier acknowledges that Supplier is the employer of all Supplier employees and shall have the sole responsibility to supervise, counsel, discipline, review, evaluate, set the pay rates of, provide (to the extent required by law) health care and other benefits for, and terminate the employment of Supplier employees. Authorized User reserves the right to require the immediate removal from such Authorized User's premises of any Supplier Personnel whom such Authorized User believes has failed to comply with the above or whose conduct or behavior is unacceptable or unprofessional or results in a security or safety breach.

B. Key Personnel

An order may designate certain of Supplier's personnel as "Key Personnel" or "Project Managers". Supplier's obligations with respect to Key Personnel and Project Managers will be described in the applicable order. Any changes to Key Personnel must be mutually agreed to in writing by Supplier and Authorized User. Failure of Supplier to perform in accordance with such obligations may be deemed a breach of this Contract or of the applicable order.

C. Subcontractors

Supplier shall not use Subcontractors to perform its contractual obligations or any order issued pursuant to the Contract unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the Authorized User. If an order issued pursuant to this Contract is supported in whole or in part with federal funds, Supplier may not subcontract to any Subcontractor that is a party excluded from Federal Procurement and Nonprocurement Programs. In no event may Supplier subcontract to any Subcontractor that is debarred by the Commonwealth or that owes back taxes to the Commonwealth and has not made arrangements with the Commonwealth for payment of such back taxes.

If Supplier subcontracts the provision of any performance obligation under this Contract to any other party, Supplier shall (i) act as prime contractor and will be the sole point of contact with regard to all obligations under this Contract; and (ii) represent and warrant that any authorized Subcontractors shall perform in accordance with the warranties set forth in this Contract.

5. GENERAL WARRANTY

THE OBLIGATIONS OF SUPPLIER UNDER THIS GENERAL WARRANTY SECTION ARE MATERIAL. SUPPLIER MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY CONCERNING MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY OTHER PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Additionally, Supplier has the right to provide the Reseller Services to VITA and the Authorized User.

B. Performance of Reseller Services

All Reseller Services shall be performed with care, skill and diligence, consistent with or above applicable professional standards currently recognized in Supplier's profession, and in accordance with the standards of performance set forth in Supplier's agreement with Microsoft to serve as a Large Account Reseller. Supplier shall be responsible for the professional quality, technical accuracy, completeness and coordination of all Reseller Services furnished under this Contract;

The Reseller Services shall meet or exceed the requirements set forth in Exhibit B;

The Reseller Services shall be performed in a professional manner.

C. Coverage Period

At any time during the applicable limited warranty period, Supplier shall provide any assistance requested by an Authorized User in exercising its rights pursuant to Microsoft's limited warranty.

D. Malicious Code

Should Supplier provide a website, as described in the Internet Access to Contract and Pricing Information section of this Contractor, Supplier represents and warrants that it has used its best efforts through quality assurance procedures to ensure that there are no Computer Viruses or undocumented features in the web application. Supplier agrees the Authorized User may pursue all remedies provided under law in the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Section, including injunctive or other equitable relief.

E. Contractor's Viability

Supplier warrants that it has the financial capacity to perform and continue to perform its obligations under this Contract; that Supplier has no constructive or actual knowledge of a potential legal proceeding being brought against Supplier that could materially adversely affect performance of this Contract and that entering into this Contract is not prohibited by any contract, or order by any court of competent jurisdiction.

6. LICENSE

A. License Grant

Microsoft Products will be licensed directly to the Authorized User by Microsoft through the Agreements between VITA and Microsoft.

B. License Type

The license types for the Microsoft Products to be provided by Supplier are defined in the Agreements.

Nothing contained herein will be construed to restrict or limit the rights of VITA or any Authorized User to use any technical data which VITA or such Authorized User may already possess or acquire under proper authorization from other sources. Compliance with the terms and conditions of any license granted pursuant to this Contract is solely the responsibility of the Authorized User to which such license is granted and not the responsibility of VITA, unless VITA is the licensee.

7. RESELLER SERVICES

Supplier shall perform the Reseller Services described in Exhibit B beginning on the Service Commencement Date with respect to each Agreement identified in Exhibit A and continuing until expiration or termination of the Contract or expiration or termination of the applicable Agreement. VITA and Supplier acknowledge that Supplier's compensation for performance of Reseller Services shall be in the form of the difference, if any, between the price paid by an Authorized User to Supplier for Microsoft Products and Online Services and the price paid by Supplier to Microsoft for such Microsoft Products and Online Services. Neither VITA nor any Authorized User shall be responsible to pay any other fees or charges for Reseller Services.

Notwithstanding all VITA's and Authorized User's rights to order Supplier's products or services under this Contract, neither VITA nor the Authorized User is under any obligation to order from Supplier any of Supplier's products or services. This Contract is mandatory for all executive branch agencies and optional for non-executive branch agencies, localities, K-12 and higher education. Addition of any Agreement to or deletion of any Agreement from Exhibit A shall be at the sole discretion of VITA. VITA reserves the right to have a different Microsoft reseller for each of its Agreements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, VITA shall comply with all its responsibilities with regard to selecting a Microsoft reseller as such responsibilities are set forth in the Agreements.

A. Internet Access to Contract and Pricing Information

Supplier agrees that VITA, at its sole discretion, may post the terms and conditions of this Contract, any and all Exhibits to this Contract, and Contract pricing and available discounts to the VITA website.

1. Supplier Website

Supplier will maintain a website specific to the Microsoft Product and Online Service offerings under the Contract which is clearly distinguishable from other, non-Commonwealth contract offerings at Supplier's website. The website should include: the Microsoft Products and Online Services offered, specifications for the Microsoft Products and Online Services, discounted Contract pricing, all available discounts, contact information for Contractor, instructions for obtaining quotes and placing orders, and Microsoft's warranty and return policies pursuant to the Agreements. The Supplier's website should also list this Contract number.

2. Accurate and Timely Contract Information

Supplier warrants and represents that the website information specified in the above section will be accurately and completely posted, maintained and displayed in an objective and timely manner. Contractor, at its own expense, shall correct any non-conforming or inaccurate information posted at Supplier's website within ten (10) days after written notification by VITA.

3. Website Compliance Checks

Periodic compliance checks of the information posted for the Contract on Supplier's website may be conducted by VITA. Upon request by VITA, Supplier shall provide verifiable documentation that pricing listed upon this website is uniform with the pricing as stated in the Fees and Charges section herein.

4. Website Changes

Supplier hereby consents to a link from the VITA website to Supplier's website in order to facilitate access to Contract information. The establishment of the link is provided solely for convenience in carrying out the business operations of VITA and the Authorized Users. VITA reserves the right to update, terminate or remove a link at any time, in its sole discretion, without advance notice, or to deny a future request for a link. Supplier shall provide VITA and all Authorized Users with timely written notice of any change in URL or other information needed to access the site and/or maintain the link.

5. Use of Access Data Prohibited

If Supplier electronically stores, collects or maintains data from any Authorized User as a condition of accessing Contract information, such data shall be considered Confidential Information, in accordance with the Confidentiality provisions of this Contract, shall only be used internally by Supplier for the purpose of implementing or marketing the Contract, and shall not be disseminated to third parties or used for other marketing purposes. The Contract constitutes a public document under the laws of the Commonwealth and Supplier shall not restrict access to Contract terms and conditions including pricing, e.g., through use of restrictive technology or passwords.

6. Responsibility for Content

Supplier is solely responsible for administration, content, management of intellectual property rights, and all materials at Supplier's website. VITA reserves the right to require a change of listed content if, in the opinion of VITA, it does not adequately represent the Contract or Contract pricing.

B. Order Processing

Supplier is required to accept any order for Microsoft Products and Online Services placed by an Authorized User through the eVA electronic procurement website portal (<http://www.eva.virginia.gov/>). eVA is the Commonwealth of Virginia's e-procurement system. State agencies, as defined in §2.2-2006 of the Code of Virginia, shall order through eVA. All other Authorized Users are encouraged to order through eVA, but may order through the following means:

Purchase Order (PO): An official PO form issued by an Authorized User.

Any other order/payment charge or credit card process, such as AMEX, MASTERCARD, or VISA under contract for use by an Authorized User.

This ordering authority is limited to issuing orders for the Reseller Services, Microsoft Products and Online Services available under this Contract and pursuant to the Agreements. Under no circumstances shall the Authorized User have the authority to modify this Contract. An order from an Authorized User may contain additional terms and conditions; however, to the extent that the terms and conditions of the Authorized User's order are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Contract, the terms of this Contract shall supersede.

Upon receipt of an order from an Authorized User for Microsoft Products and Online Services, Supplier shall promptly place such order with Microsoft in accordance with the procedures described in Exhibit B. Failure of Supplier to place such order within five (5) days shall be a material default of this Contract, and VITA or the affected Authorized User may exercise its rights pursuant to the Term and Termination section of this Contract. Supplier shall provide to Authorized User sixty (60) days advance notice of any scheduled payment or expiration of any Microsoft Software Assurance. For notices related to expiration of Software Assurance, Supplier shall include a report detailing the ordering or using entity (e.g., the Authorized User department which has licensed the Microsoft Product) and a price quote to renew Software Assurance, should Authorized User elect.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Supplier shall not accept any order from an Authorized User if such order is to be funded, in whole or in part, by federal funds and if, at the time the order is placed, Supplier is not eligible to be the recipient of federal funds as may be noted on any of the Lists of Parties Excluded from Federal Procurement and Nonprocurement Programs. In addition, Supplier shall not provide Microsoft Products or Online Services to an Authorized User if Supplier has knowledge, or has reason to believe, that such Microsoft Products or Online Services are to be used outside of the United States unless such Authorized User can demonstrate the consent of Microsoft to use of such Microsoft Products or Online Services outside of the United States. If in such event Supplier does not provide such Microsoft Products or Online Services, Supplier shall provide written notice of its reason to the Authorized User and to VITA.

C. Fees and Charges

As consideration for the Microsoft Products and Online Services provided hereunder, the Authorized User shall pay Supplier the associated Microsoft reference price and/or Estimated Retail Price less the percentage discount(s) set forth in Exhibit C. The percentage discount(s), or greater discount(s), shall be applicable throughout the term of this Contract, including any extensions thereto. The Supplier may offer promotional discounts higher than the percentage discount set forth in Exhibit C, provided Supplier offers such promotional discounts to all Authorized Users and provides VITA with advance written notice of such promotional discounts. Supplier shall be solely responsible for payment to Microsoft of any and all fees for Microsoft Products and Online Services.

D. Fees and Charges for Pre-Existing Orders Transitioned to this Contract

Fees and charges for pre-existing Authorized User orders with multiple year pricing included (those issued prior to this Contract's start date), shall retain the original orders' pricing until the expiration or termination of such order. The fees and charges in Exhibit C hereto apply only to new orders (including True-ups and additional product orders) for Microsoft Products and Online Services issued after the effective date of this Contract.

E. Invoice Procedures

Supplier shall remit each invoice to the "bill to" address provided with the order promptly after all Microsoft Products or Online Services have been provided to the appropriate Authorized User. Payment for Software Assurance shall be annually in advance unless otherwise stated in the Agreements, an Authorized User's enrollment, or in any order referencing this Contract. No invoice shall include any costs other than those identified on the Microsoft price list in effect at the time of order placement, less the discount set forth in Exhibit C or any additional promotional discount which may be offered by the Supplier in accordance with the Fees and Charges section of this Contract. Without limiting the foregoing, all shipping costs are the Supplier's responsibility except to the extent such charges are identified in Exhibit C, or as noted in any executed order referencing this Contract. Applicable order date

Supplier's purchase order number to Microsoft

Supplier's Federal Employer Identification Number ("FEIN").

ALL CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS CONTRACT IN CONNECTION WITH AN ORDER PLACED BY ANY AUTHORIZED USER ARE THE SOLE OBLIGATION OF SUCH AUTHORIZED USER AND NOT THE RESPONSIBILITY OF VITA UNLESS SUCH AUTHORIZED USER IS VITA.

F. Purchase Payment Terms

Supplier is responsible for the accuracy of its billing information. Any credits due any Authorized User under the terms of this Contract may be applied against Supplier's invoices to such Authorized User with appropriate information attached. Charges for Microsoft Products and Online Services provided more than ninety (90) days prior to receipt of a valid invoice may not be paid. Such nonpayment by an Authorized User shall not release Supplier from its obligation to remit payment to Microsoft for such Microsoft Products and Online Services.

If there are any disputed items, the Authorized User shall pay all undisputed charges and promptly notify Supplier in writing of any disputed amount. Supplier shall thereupon review its records, and, if it does not concur with the Authorized User, provide the Authorized User with documentation to support the charge. Notwithstanding any dispute regarding an invoice to any Authorized User, or any portion of such invoice, Supplier shall in all circumstances promptly remit payment any payment due Microsoft for the Microsoft Products and Online Services provided to such Authorized User.

All payment terms are net 30 days after Microsoft Products and Online Services have been provided and the Authorized User has received a valid invoice issued by Contractor.

8. DELIVERY, INSTALLATION, TESTING, AND CURE PERIOD

A. Scheduling

Supplier shall provide the Microsoft Products and Online Services according to the due dates set forth on the appropriate order. Supplier shall perform the Reseller Services in accordance with the requirements set forth in Exhibit B.

B. Installation of Microsoft Products and Online Services

C. Acceptance of Microsoft Products and Online Services

Microsoft Products and Online Services shall be deemed accepted when the Authorized User determines that such Microsoft Products and Online Services successfully operate in accordance with Microsoft published documentation. Such Authorized User agrees to commence Acceptance testing within ten (10) business days after installation of the Microsoft Products and Online Services, or within such other period as set forth in the applicable order, after receipt of the Microsoft Products and Online Services. Acceptance testing will be no longer than ten (10) days, or such longer period as may be agreed in writing between Authorized User and Contractor, for the first instance of each product type set forth in Exhibit C. Supplier agrees to provide to such Authorized User such assistance and advice as such Authorized User may reasonably require, at no additional cost, during such Acceptance testing, other than travel expenses pre-approved by the Authorized User which will be reimbursable by such Authorized User at the then-current per diem amounts as published by the Virginia Department of Accounts <http://www.doa.virginia.gov>, or a successor URL(s)). Authorized User shall provide to Supplier written notice of Acceptance upon completion of successful Acceptance testing. Authorized User must notify Supplier immediately if Authorized User has identified any non-conformities in the Microsoft Products and Online Services. The Authorized User acknowledges and agrees that Microsoft shall only issue credits for rejected Microsoft Products and Online Services within thirty (30) days of receipt of Microsoft Products and Online Services. Should Authorized User fail to provide Supplier written notice of successful or unsuccessful Acceptance testing within five (5) days following the Acceptance testing period or within twenty-five (25) days after receipt of the Microsoft Products and Online Services, whichever time period is earlier, the Microsoft Products and Online Services shall be deemed Accepted. No credits shall be issued for Microsoft Products and Online Services unless such credits are authorized by Microsoft.

D. Cure Period for Microsoft Products and Online Services

Supplier shall assist in resolving any non-conformities identified during Acceptance testing and re-submit replacements for such non-conforming Microsoft Products and Online Services for re-testing within seven (7) calendar days of the appropriate Authorized User's written notice of non-conformance, or as otherwise agreed between such Authorized User and Supplier in the applicable order. Should the non-conformity not be resolved or Supplier not deliver replacement Microsoft Products and Online Services which meet Microsoft's published documentation, such Authorized User may, in its sole discretion: (i) reject the Microsoft Products and Online Services in its entirety and recover amounts previously paid hereunder; (ii) issue a "partial Acceptance" of the Microsoft Products and Online Services with an equitable adjustment in the price to account for such deficiency; or (iii) conditionally accept the applicable Microsoft Products and Online Services while reserving its right to revoke Acceptance if timely correction is not forthcoming. Failure of the Microsoft Products and Online Services to meet, in all material respects, Microsoft's published documentation after the second set of acceptance tests allows the Authorized User at its sole discretion, to terminate its order, in whole or in part, for the Microsoft Products and Online Services to be provided thereunder by Contractor.

E. Acceptance of Reseller Services

Reseller Service(s) shall be deemed accepted when VITA determines that such Reseller Service(s) meets the Reseller Service obligations set forth in the Contract or an Authorized User determines that such Reseller Service(s) meets the Reseller Service obligations set forth in the applicable Authorized User order. Should a previously Accepted Reseller Service require further services or modification in order to fulfill the Reseller Service obligation, Supplier shall be responsible for all costs associated with such additional services or with such modification.

Acceptance testing shall not apply to Reseller Services. Acceptance of Reseller Services shall be deemed Accepted if VITA, for the Contract, or Authorized User for its applicable order, fails to provide written notice of non-Acceptance of the Reseller Service(s).

Should VITA or the Authorized User provide written notice of non-Acceptance to Supplier which may include but not be limited to, any reporting delinquency or unacceptable or deficient quality, failure to provide operable website links, mismanagement of servicing the Agreement(s) and managing orders for Microsoft Products and Online Services, Supplier agrees to provide to VITA or the Authorized User, as applicable, such assistance and resolution efforts as VITA or the Authorized User may reasonably require, at no additional cost.

F. Cure Period for Reseller Services

Should Supplier fail to cure the non-Acceptance or fail to deliver a Reseller Services resolution which meets the Reseller Services obligations as stated in Exhibit B and an individual order, VITA, for the Contract, or the Authorized User for its applicable order, may, in its sole discretion: (i) reject the Reseller Services in their entirety and recover amounts previously paid for all such Reseller Services; (ii) issue a "partial Acceptance" of the Reseller Services with an equitable adjustment in the price to account for such deficiency; or (iii) conditionally accept the applicable Reseller Services while reserving its right to revoke Acceptance if timely correction is not forthcoming. Failure of a Reseller Service to meet, in all material respects, the Reseller Services obligations of the Contract or any individual order may constitute a default by Contractor. In the event of such default, VITA may, at its sole discretion, terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, or the Authorized User may, at its sole discretion, terminate its order, in whole or in part, for the Reseller Services to be provided thereunder by Contractor.

A copy of Supplier's Plan is attached to this Contract as Exhibit H, and is incorporated by reference. The SSCC must include a written explanation of any variances of greater than 20% between the Plan and the actual subcontractor spend by Supplier. Supplier's SSCC will be maintained by VITA in the Supplier's procurement file. Supplier must submit the SSCC to the following address: SCMInfo@vita.virginia.gov. In the event that Supplier fails to comply with its contractually obligated Plan spend or fails to report its contractually obligated Plan spend, VITA may, at its sole discretion, prohibit or delay any renewals or extensions of the Contract, withhold any final payments due, or both. Supplier's failure to comply will be considered in the prospective award of any future contracts with Supplier.

B. Limitation of Liability

Supplier will be liable for damages caused by its employees, agents, or subcontractors. Except for liability arising out of a Party's negligence or willful misconduct, neither Party will be liable to the other Party for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, including (without limitation) loss of profit, income, or savings, even if advised of the possibility of these damages.

13. SECURITY COMPLIANCE

If this Contract has not been otherwise terminated and bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to Supplier, then VITA may suspend all further performance of this Contract until Supplier assumes this Contract and provides adequate assurance of its performance of Supplier's contractual obligations or rejects this Contract pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar or successor provision, it being agreed by VITA and Supplier that this is an executory contract.
