The source code is defined as the Software in source code form, including all relevant documentation and instructions identified in the Portal Agreement as being part of the contingent license (the "Source Code"). The Source Code and any other components Depositor provides which are related to building and maintaining the Software identified on the applicable Exhibit B (as the same may be modified herein) are hereafter referred to collectively as the deposit materials ("Deposit Materials").

Whereas, the purpose of this Agreement is to set up a framework whereby the applicable Depositor can, by execution of the relevant Rider C, agree to receive services identified herein, under certain terms and conditions, to protect Depositor's ownership/license rights and confidentiality of the Deposit Materials and to protect the contingent license Beneficiary has or may receive from Depositor. Further, this Agreement is intended to provide for certain circumstances under which the applicable Beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the Deposit Materials held in escrow by Escrow Associates for its legitimate use and support of the Software.

If two (2) good faith attempts to return Deposit Materials via commercial courier to Depositor fail (for a reason other than Escrow Associates' negligence (including the failure to send the notice to the correct address and person) or intentional/willful misconduct) or Depositor does not accept the Deposit Materials, Escrow Associates shall, upon ten (10) days' prior written notice to NICUSA, destroy the Deposit Materials.

Depositor agrees to reimburse Escrow Associates for any and all costs incurred as a result of any arbitration including attorney's fees, except to the extent the arbitration is required because of Escrow Associates' breach of this Agreement, negligence or willful/intentional misconduct, and only if Escrow Associates prevails at the arbitration. The arbitrator(s) shall award attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party.

(c) Limitation of Effect - This Agreement pertains strictly to the escrow services provided for herein and does not modify, amend or affect any other contract or agreement of one or more of the parties. The terms and provisions of the Portal Agreement shall continue in full force and effect and be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Depositor and Beneficiary, their legal representatives, successors and assigns.

(j) Waivers. The failure by one party to require performance of any provision shall not affect that party's right to require performance at any time thereafter, nor shall a waiver of any breach or default of this Agreement constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default or a waiver of the provision itself. All waivers hereunder must be in writing and signed by the party waiving its right.
